Profile

Kyle joined Chambers in May 2017.

Prior to joining Chambers Kyle worked in legal costs for 10 years. Kyle's experience in legal costs spans all aspects of personal injury work and group litigation. He has a particular interest in group litigation having worked in several high profile group actions over the last few years.

Kyle is responsible for all fee related work, including negotiation of fees and costs management.

Outside of Chambers, he enjoys socialising with friends and spending time with his young family.
