Practice Overview

Andrew Lewis KC has vast experience in all areas of personal injury and clinical negligence work, having specialised in these fields since joining the Bar. In Silk his practice largely consisted of traumatic brain injury, spinal cord injury and cerebral palsy claims.

Having recently stepped back from his very busy practice and sitting as a Deputy High Court Judge, Andrew now concentrates on working as an Evaluative Mediator in personal injury and clinical negligence claims. He is an Accredited Mediator with the Society of Mediators and has successfully worked as a Mediator and Evaluator for many years, creating protocols and providing training for an independent mediation and evaluation provider.

Legal Directories have consistently rated Andrew as a Tier 1 Leading Silk for his personal injury and clinical negligence work.
